Day 1: This morning as you board your Travel Tours coach receive a warm welcome from your Tour Director and Driver. Get acquainted with fellow traveling companions or play a few games as you make your way to West Des Moines, IA and the Drury Inn & Suites, your accommodations for the next three nights. Enjoy Spring, a beautiful time to explore the breathtaking blooms of the Pella Tulip Festival and the romance of the Bridges of Madison County. (Light Dinner @ Drury)

Day 2: With a local guide discover the magic and romance of Winterset, Iowa, home to the famous novel “Bridges of Madison County” and some of the oldest bridges in the nation. It was here that Robert James Waller created the romantic setting for his famous novel. Visit the many sites that Clint Eastwood and Meryl Streep brought to life in the movie version. Visit the John Wayne Birthplace Museum & pay homage to the cinematic legend still inspiring new fans today. Return to Des Moines for a tour of the Salisbury House & Gardens.

Discover the enduring charm of 16th-century England, the changes of the 1920s and the vibrant culture of the 21st century. See the majestic Great Hall, the art-filled Common Room, the elegant dining room and then the picturesque gardens (elevator access to 2nd floor). Dinner this evening served family-style at the Iowa Machine Shed. (CB, D)

Day 3: The 77th Annual Pella Tulip Festival is rich in Dutch heritage with thousands of tulips in bloom throughout the city. Residents wear Dutch attire and celebrate their Dutch heritage. For three days each Spring, Pella becomes Holland to Pella residents and visitors alike. Travel back in time to a European village full of windmills, tulips and excitement. A local guide boards your coach for a city overview. See traditional Dutch architecture at the incomparable Pella Historical Village comprised of 24 buildings. Costumed interpreters demonstrate pottery making, weaving, blacksmithing, wooden shoe manufacturing and so much more! Enjoy the fine entertainment of the Parade, Street & Stage Show. See colorful floats, marching bands, Klompen dancers & traditional street scrubbers. View original furnishings and fine household items from Holland as you visit the Scholte House Museum & Gardens. Built by Pella’s founder, Dominie Scholte in 1847, this historic home sits quietly surrounded by award winning flower gardens. Then it’s time to head back to the Drury Inn & Suites for the night. (CB, L, Light Dinner)

Day 4: Return home today after a fantastic Spring celebration of tulips, tulips and more with all your new friends from Travel Tours. (CB)
